Dear Practitioner:

I write to you as an enthusiastic supporter of the UPR Business Law Journal. The Journal, our newest undertaking at the University of Puerto Rico School of Law, is a project created to provide an agora for ideas regarding one of Puerto Rico's most pressing needs: restoring economic growth. We cherish the opportunity to be the cradle of this novel undertaking, as we are sure it will be a great success.

During these times of economic distress it is ever more important to explore how law and business can better interrelate. As a Practitioner, you are in a unique position to contribute ideas and discuss issues that need to be addressed. For this reason, I invite you to support the Journal and help us foster business development in our island.

Sincerely,

Roberto P. Aponte-Toro
